

in * bar, &c. Comber's Case, 1 P. Will. 767. The Court will, without requiring any appearance to be entered, on motion, 546 at any time after the first four days of the term to which the party has been returned summoned, order the decree to stand revived. 1 Harr. Pra. Cha. 670; 2 Harr. Pra. Cha. 191; 2 Fowl. Exch. Pra. 301, 305, 419. The Court of Chancery in this, as in various other particulars, regulates its proceeding by analogy to the course of the common law; according to which, where after judgment a party dies, the judgment may be revived by a scire facias, on which, if returned made known, and no cause is shewn, the judgment is at once ordered to stand revived without an appearance. So in Chancery. But in this case nothing more than a common subpoena to answer has been issued. No subpoena scire facias has been as yet either asked for, issued or made known. Therefore it is Ordered, that the said petition of the said Sarah Allen stand over, with leave so to amend it as to pray for a subpoena scire facias, and until such process can be issued and returned to the term next after the same shall have been issued.

The petition was amended as suggested by this order, and a subpoena scire facias, in the following form, was issued:

"Maryland, set:—The State of Maryland, to Micajah Burke, Elizabeth Burke; and William Comegys, of Baltimore County, Greeting; You are hereby commanded, that all excuses set apart you personally be and appear before the High Court of Chancery, to be held at the City of Annapolis on the second Tuesday of March next, to shew cause, if any you have, why a decree passed by the said Court on the 29th day of April, 1828, against you, at the suit of the late Richard Allen, should not stand revived against you at the suit of Sarah Allen, administratrix with the will annexed of the said late Richard Allen, as prayed by her petition in the said Court exhibited. Hereof fail not, as you will answer the contrary at your peril. Witness the Honorable THEODORICK BLAND, Chancellor, this 16th day of February, Anno Domini, 1829.

"Test, RAMSAY WATERS, Reg. Cur. Can."

The sheriff on the 6th of March, 1829, returned the writ thus endorsed: "Summoned Comegys, summoned Micajah Burke and Elizabeth Burke." Upon which the matter was again brought before the Court.

BLAND, C., 18th March, 1829.—It appearing by the return of the subpoena scire facias, that the said defendants have * been summoned, and no cause having been shewn, it is 547 therefore ordered, that the said decree stand revived to all intents and purposes whatever in favor of the said Sarah Allen, administratrix with the will annexed of the said late Richard Allen, against the said defendants Micajah Burke, Elizabeth Burke,
